ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This material was developed as a result of cooperation between the Citizenship Foundation and the Home Office. For the Citizenship Foundation it represented the opportunity to develop a range of citizenship material for primary school children which can be used to prepare pupils for citizenship work in the secondary school. The Foundation's Law in Education Project materials (published by Hodder and Stoughton) provide materials for Key Stages 3 and 4 built around the same key concepts as those focused on here.

We very gratefully acknowledge the creative contributions and the professional experience of members of the project development team. Most of the materials in this pack represent team efforts in some degree or another and so it would be invidious, not to say difficult, to state authorship of individual pieces in the pack. Particular thanks go to:

Wyn Bray, Oxfordshire LEA
Gill Blogg, Estcourt Junior School, Hull, Humberside
Anna Craft, Open University
Annabelle Dixon, Holdbrook JMI, Waltham Cross, Herts
Barry Miller, Wolverhampton University
Gill Rose, Swaffield Junior, Wandsworth
Tony Thorpe, Citizenship Foundation
Enid Tickle, Tucksford First School, Norwich
W.P.C. Claire Goodenough, Metropolitan Police
P.C. Dave Holbrook, Metropolitan Police.

Thanks also to Ian Addis, Barton Seagrave Primary, Northants for permission to use "A Lucky Break" and to Martin Wright of Lifetime TV.

We wish to thank also those many teachers who made an enormous contribution to this project through the process of evaluating and refining the materials. Many ideas and much greater understanding of the task came out of the evaluation process which for some teachers was undertaken with great thoroughness and enthusiasm for what the project was seeking to do. In particular we would like to thank: Elaine Barron, Kim Darby, Liz Hurrion, Ann Kibby, Alan Parkinson, Irene Saward, Gail Salt, Mary Snell, and Linda Townsend for many useful suggestions. Many thanks also to John Lloyd and Anita Baxter of Birmingham LEA and Vaughan Johnson of Hertfordshire LEA for their very considerable support.

Finally, we should like to extend our gratitude to Helena Rafalowska and Claire Binnie of the Home Office Crime Prevention Publicity Department for their interest and support throughout this project and of course, Andrew Phillips, the chairman, and the trustees and staff of the Citizenship Foundation who have been so supportive.

Comments or queries regarding the materials or INSET support should be addressed to Don Rowe or Jan Newton, The Citizenship Foundation, Weddel House, 13 West Smithfield, London EC1A 9HY. Tel 0171 236 2171 Fax 0171 329 3702.
